
U., will meet with Mrs. Levi Howland at 2 o'clock P. M. on Monday, at the school house. The circus is booked to exhibit in this vicinity by railroad. The circus is coming down Main street Monday, through the town. Mr. L. A. Knowlton over reached at the shafts and the harness. The Mills Sunday School will hold the temperance day exercises on Monday at 2 P. M., at the school house. A number of Canton Pailins are requested to attend the Fellowship Hall on Monday evening. The committee are now taking into consideration the matter of

1. The following cases have been cited in the Ringer Law Court. State v. Henry Wymann & al. Excepting any prosecutions. Judgment in favor of M. Stevens vs Manly E. Dugg. Motion by plaintiff overruled for want of a State vs Nathan Page. Appeal overruled for want of process. In the state vs Abide M. Sprow. Appeal. Motion overruled for want of a State vs Oscar C. Wentworth vs Inhabitants of Ipswich. Appeal. Motion for suspension of writ overruled by consensus pro and. vs M. S. Wentworth. Appeal. Motion for suspension of writ overruled for want of process.

First. He not only has all that the class jewelry store but makes necklaces and eye glasses, ribbons.

Nickerson & Bailey, wood carvers, their mill from Monroe to the airport, where they will serve their customers in another column. See the meeting of the Belfast Club on the annual meeting of the Old Fiddlers Association will be held at 6 o'clock, Thursday, July 2, at 7 o'clock at the cottage of Col. W. H. Fogler in Northport, is advertised to let

Mr. Thomas F. Shea, the popular line company, will play a three night game at the Belfast Opera House beginning Friday evening. Mr. Shea has played many times and has become a great favorite

It is claimed that he has the never had, which is saying much. The play is presented "Escaped from the night," "Barred Out," and "Saturated with the spirit of the age." The performance Mr. Sica will give is free dance. Doubtless the company is patronized. Tickets 15, 22 and 25 cents now on sale at the box office.

There has been quite an excitement in the city of New York. Mr. Benjamin Allen, who lives with his family in the city of New York, was left to do the work on the farm. He went to Bucksport. He was the cows to pasture, but when he returned to the city, he was missing. He made but as yet he has not been recovered supposed to be his was taken by the river with one hand. It is believed that he was killed accidentally or intentionally, as e river....The A. O. U. W. had a Green's Landing June 19th. All recent time .. Mr. Oliver Perkins, the owner of the Blue Hill Granite Co., has reported to work on the Post Office there....Some of the quarry men have moved on the Blue Hill Quarry.

